17.10 Arbitration Procedure

Powers of an Arbitrator

A grievance referred to arbitration shall be determined by a mutually acceptable arbitrator/board of arbitration who shall have all the powers described in Part 1 of the Canada Labour Code.

Cost of Arbitration

In respect of the cost of arbitration of grievances, the parties shall share equally the fee and expenses of the sole Arbitrator or the Chair of the Arbitration Board and, where applicable, each party shall be responsible for the expenses of their respective nominee to the Board of Arbitration.

List of Arbitrators

The parties will agree to a list of arbitrators for each geographical area to whom grievances may be referred. This list shall be reviewed at the mid-point of the Collective Agreement and may be amended by mutual agreement. Each party will alternate in selecting an arbitrator to sit as a sole arbitrator or as a chair of the Arbitration Board from the appropriate list. In the event that the Arbitrator selected by a party is unable to hear the grievance within ninety (90) days of the referral to arbitration, the party having made the selection may choose another arbitrator from the list.

Expedited Arbitration

- (a) As an alternative to the formal arbitration process set out in the foregoing paragraphs, a grievance may, upon mutual consent of the parties, be referred to a previously agreed upon sole arbitrator, whose appointment shall be reviewed annually. The Arbitrator shall hear the grievance and at the conclusion of the hearing, immediately give a verbal decision with reasons. The Arbitrator's decision, with reasons, will be confirmed in writing. The decision shall be final and binding upon both parties and shall be made without precedent or prejudice to similar or like cases. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to change the Collective Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.
- (b) To maintain the efficiency of such a process, the parties agree not to use outside legal counsel to argue a case or to call any evidence at expedited arbitration.
- (c) The parties agree to schedule expedited arbitration as required. At least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing, the parties will mutually agree upon a list of grievances to be heard. The parties also agree to prepare a joint statement of facts at least five (5) days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

Sole Arbitrator v. Board of Arbitration

All grievances will be heard by a sole arbitrator except where the parties mutually agree that the grievance shall be heard by a board of arbitration.

Arbitration Board

Where the parties agree to a Board of Arbitration, the party referring the grievance to arbitration shall also provide the name of that party's nominee to the Board of Arbitration. Within ten (10) days thereafter, the other party shall answer by registered mail, indicating the name and address of its nominee to the Board of Arbitration. The selection of the Chair shall be in accordance with the list of arbitrators above.

Arbitration Procedure

The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration may determine its own procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations in order to determine the issue in dispute.

Decision

- (a) The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board of Arbitration. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall be the decision of the Board of Arbitration. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding and enforceable on all parties, but in no event shall the Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration have the power to change the Collective Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.
- (b) The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration shall have the power to modify any discipline or discharge imposed by NAV CANADA and to take whatever action is just and equitable in the circumstances relative to the discipline or discharge.

Arbitrability

- (a) The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration shall have jurisdiction to determine whether a grievance is arbitrable.
- (b) The Arbitrator/Board of Arbitration may extend the time for taking any step in the grievance process or arbitration procedure, even after the expiration of the time, if the Arbitrator or Arbitration Board is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the extension and that the other party would not be unduly prejudiced by the extension.

Location of Arbitration Hearing

The arbitration hearing shall be held at the city where the work site of the grievor is located, unless the parties agree otherwise.

ARTICLE 18

NAV CANADA JOINT COUNCIL AGREEMENTS

- 18.01 Agreements, as amended from time to time, concluded by the NAV CANADA Joint Council on items which may be included in this Agreement and which the parties to this Agreement endorsed after November, 1, 1996 and made in accordance with the terms of the NAV CANADA Joint Council By-laws (as amended from time to time) will form part of this Collective Agreement.
- 18.02 Grievances with respect to the above-mentioned agreements will be determined in accordance with the NAV CANADA Joint Council By-laws.

ARTICLE 19

EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEW AND EMPLOYEE FILES

- 19.01 (a) When a formal assessment of an employee's performance is made, the employee concerned must be given an opportunity to discuss and then sign the assessment form in question upon its completion to indicate that its contents have been read. A copy of the assessment form will be provided to the employee at that time. An employee's signature on his or her assessment form will be considered to be an indication only that its contents have been read and shall not indicate the employee's concurrence with the statements contained on the form.
- (b) The NAV CANADA representative(s) who assess an employee's performance must have observed or been aware of the employee's performance for at least one-half (1/2) of the period for which the employee's performance is evaluated.
- (c) An employee has the right to make written comments to be attached to the performance review form.
- 19.02 (a) Prior to an employee performance review the employee shall be given:
- (i) the evaluation form which will be used for the review;

- (b) If during the employee performance review, either the form or instructions are changed, they shall be given to the employee.
- 19.03 Upon written request of an employee, the personnel file of that employee shall be made available once per year for his or her examination in the presence of an authorized representative of NAV CANADA.
- 19.04 Grievances arising from Article 19 shall first be dealt with through an alternate dispute resolution process (ADR) as agreed to by the parties. Once alternate dispute resolution mechanisms are agreed to by the parties, the grievance will be held in abeyance pending the results of the ADR process.
- 19.05 On written request, an employee shall be provided with an assessment of his or her performance or of his or her potential. NAV CANADA may elect to respond to requests for assessment of performance or potential no more than once per year per employee.

ARTICLE 20

HARASSMENT

- 20.01 The Association and NAV CANADA recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from sexual harassment and personal harassment, including abuse of authority, and agree that such forms of harassment will not be tolerated in the workplace.
- 20.02 Any level in the grievance procedure shall be waived if a person hearing the grievance is the subject of the complaint.
- 20.03 The parties agree that grievances arising from Article 20 shall first be dealt with through an alternate dispute resolution process (ADR) as agreed to by the parties. Once alternate dispute resolution mechanisms are agreed to by the parties, the grievance will be held in abeyance pending the results of the ADR process. Furthermore, employees are precluded from other avenues of redress, save and except applicable legislative procedures, until the ADR process has concluded.

ARTICLE 21

SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

- 21.01 Discipline may be imposed where just cause exists and will be levied in a timely fashion. Generally, discipline is intended to correct undesirable behaviour or conduct and, where appropriate, shall be progressive in nature.
- 21.02 Prior to any discipline being imposed, the employee will be given notice in writing to attend a meeting, during which there shall be an opportunity for full discussion between the employee and the employee's Manager. The notice will contain the subject matter to be discussed at the meeting and the employee shall be advised of his/her right to have an Association representative attend as an advisor. The management representative also has the right to have a labour relations representative attend as an advisor. At the meeting the employee and the Association representative may make representations and ask questions concerning the events and circumstances. Unless otherwise agreed, the unavailability of an advisor will not delay the meeting for more than one (1) working day from the date of notification to the employee.
- 21.03 When an employee is required to attend a meeting, the purpose of which is to render a disciplinary decision concerning him or her, the employee is entitled to have, at his or her request, a representative of the Association attend the meeting. Where practicable, the employee shall receive a minimum of one (1) day's notice of such a meeting. The Employer will agree where possible to an additional day of extension where the Association representative is unavailable.
- 21.04 The employee and the Association representative shall be notified in writing of any disciplinary action except an oral warning, taken against the employee by the Company within a reasonable period of time of that action having been taken.
- 21.05 When an employee is required to attend a meeting, the purpose of which is to demote or terminate him/her for non-disciplinary reasons, he/she is entitled to have, at his/her request, a representative of the Association attend the meeting. Where practicable, the employee shall receive a minimum of one (1) day's notice of such a meeting. The Employer will agree where possible to an additional day of extension where the Association representative is unavailable.
- 21.06 When any discipline is found to be unjustified all documents referring to the discipline imposed shall be removed as soon as reasonably possible from the employee's record and destroyed.

- 21.07 NAV CANADA agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing relating to disciplinary action any document or written statement concerning the conduct of an employee unless that employee has been provided with a copy of that document or statement within a reasonable period before that hearing.
- 21.08 Any document or written statement to disciplinary action, which may have been placed on the NAV CANADA file of an employee shall be removed and destroyed after two (2) years have elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken, provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period. The Employer shall inform the employee in writing of the destruction of any document or written statement related to disciplinary action.
- 21.09 The NAV CANADA Code of Business Conduct will not be interpreted as restricting an employee from exercising his or her obligations flowing from the ethical standards of the professional body to which the employee belongs.
- 21.10 NAV CANADA agrees to make available to each employee covered by this agreement the NAV CANADA Code of Business Conduct and any subsequent amendments made thereto.
- 21.11 Employees who, in good faith, raise a concern or report any clear or suspected illegal, unethical or improper acts or activities shall not be disciplined nor adversely affected as a result of reporting the violation.

- 22.02 The parties agree that grievances arising from Article 22.01 shall first be dealt with through an alternate dispute resolution process (ADR) when mutually agreed to by the parties. Once alternate dispute resolution mechanisms are agreed to by the parties, the grievance will be held in abeyance pending the results of the ADR process. Furthermore, employees are precluded from other avenues of redress, save and except applicable legislative procedures, until the ADR process has concluded. The ADR process shall not result in any unreasonable delay.
- 22.03 Any level in the grievance procedure shall be waived if a person hearing the grievance is the subject of the complaint.
- 22.04 A grievance arising from the application of the NAV CANADA Harassment Policy and Alternative Resolution Policy (ADR) may be presented under Article 17 Grievance and Arbitration Procedure of this collective agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the ACFO Group collective agreement, the implementation of any variation in hours shall not result in any additional overtime work or additional payment by reason only of such variation, nor shall it be deemed to prohibit the right of the Employer to schedule any hours of work permitted by the terms of this agreement.

Any special arrangement may be at the request of either party and must be mutually agreed between the Employer and the employee(s) affected. Where individual employees' duties or shifts are interdependent, then the majority of the affected must agree to the arrangement and it shall apply to all of these employees.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING NO. 1-12
RE: NEW CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM

Mr. Scott Chamberlain
Director, Labour Relations
Association of Canadian Financial Officers
2725 Queensview Drive – Suite 400
Ottawa, Ontario, K2B 0A1

Dear Mr. Chamberlain:

Following a full review of managerial exclusions, the Association and NAV CANADA will meet to commence a process to establish a new classification system applicable to all positions (FI) covered by this collective agreement. The Association and NAV CANADA agree to make all reasonable efforts to conclude this process as soon as possible.

1. The Association and NAV CANADA shall be involved as equal partners in all meetings, committees and steps related to the preparation, design, testing and selection of a new classification system. NAV CANADA and ACFO shall exchange all information reasonably necessary for the development of the new classification system.
2. The new classification system will be gender neutral and shall comply with section 11 of the Canadian Human Rights Act including the Equal Wages Guideline.
3. If, within one year following a full review of managerial exclusions (unless otherwise agreed by the parties) no agreement is reached on the new classification system, either party may refer the unresolved issue or issues to a binding arbitration board (with nominees appointed by each side who would appoint a chair) which would render at a minimum, a majority decision.
4. It is expressly agreed that the new classification system shall not be implemented until the next collective agreement is signed by the parties. The parties will be left to negotiate the economic implications and the rules of conversion of any new or modified classification system in that round of bargaining.
5. It is expressly agreed that no member of the bargaining unit will lose their position as a direct result of the implementation of the new classification system, nor will they be required to compete for the position they occupy the day proceeding the implementation of the new classification system.

Sincerely yours,

Phil Valois
